About Antharal Charitable Foundation:

Antharal Charitable Foundation is the realization of a long-cherished dream of Sri. Late V.S. Vijayaraghavan, an educationist and a philanthropist, and an advocate along with a group of young corporate professionals, felt that it was their social responsibility and to create an opportunity to give back to our society in a way related to education, health and awareness of human rights and duties. A dedicated group of like-minded people led by the Founder joined hands in January 2007 to provide charitable assistance to the needy. The significance of our Foundation's name "Antharal" gives you practicality, realism, reliability, discipline, sincerity and experience.
